

KellyOCG Outsourcing and Consulting Group

CK has supplied staff to the KellyOCG life science MSP programmes since 2009 and have been awarded numerous awards from KellyOCG over the years for excellent service.

This is a case study with a Talent Supply Chain Consultant KellyOCG who manages a programme with a British headquartered leading portfolio medical device company.

01

What is your job title and which Account do you manage?

I am a Talent Supply Chain Consultant and strategically manage the MSP account for a global leader in medical device technology specialising in surgical devices and wound care.

02

Can you tell us a little bit about KellyOCG?

KellyOCG is the leading advisor of talent supply chain strategies and workforce solutions. We work with CK Group on our Managed Service Provider Programmes (MSP).

03

What was your motivation for working with CK on your account?

Fantastic feedback was received for CK in general who is also a supplier to most MSP programmes from my understanding.

05

What sets CK apart from other suppliers?

Responsiveness plus I get to work with Jo and Hannah, the CK Account Managers, who are amazing. CK are fully supportive of my MSP programme, work all roles across our PSL even low-level positions. They always provide feedback which helps the process run extremely smoothly.

04

Can you describe how CK has been able to help you and your company?

CK provide high quality candidates at competitive rates and have been able to help us fill many vacancies with a high success rate over the years.

06

How would you summarise your experience working with CK?

CK is a fantastic supplier and are very important to my MSP programme.

“CK Group’s journey with KellyOCG over the last 10 years is a shining example of how a supplier can grow a relationship from initially servicing one client to developing their business into multiple programs and countries as a result of consistently strong performance which resulted in a KellyOCG Supplier Excellence Award in 2017 and appointment on to the 2018 KellyOCG Global Preferred Supplier Network.”
